THE SAFETY REBATE PROGRAM

I realize that the product safety video provided is critical information that I must understand to operate the product safely. I have viewed the video and understand it - this is witnessed by the codes I have obtained while viewing the video. I realize that I can call 1-800-123-4567 if I have any questions. I further realize that all other product users will need this same information to operate the product safely and I agree to be solely responsible to insure that all other users have the required information and understand it.
